

210 new services will be added to Single Window 2.0 by next March: TN industries minister | Chennai News

By

Damudat Naik

CHENNAI: The upgraded single window clearance web site 2.0 has inculcated over 100 services throughout 24 departments and the state authorities will add one other 210 services beneath it by next March, the TN industries minister Thangam Thennarasu stated on Monday.

“We will ensure that the single window is not just on paper but in delivery. The upgraded system will have features such as parallel processing of clearances, virtual meeting with departments, artificial intelligence based Chatbox facility and deemed approval for select clearances,” the minister stated.

The minister was talking nearly on the 185th Annual General Meeting of the Madras Chamber of Commerce.

He added that within the first sequence of investments introduced in by the new state authorities, 35 new MoUs have been signed to entice greater than Rs 17,141 crores in new investments and generate employment to 55,000 folks. We have set the platform to obtain the goal to make Tamil Nadu a $1 trillion financial system by 2030, he stated. Sridhar Vembu, founding father of SaaS main Zoho, additionally among the many occasion visitors, stated that Tamil Nadu can take numerous delight for being one among the many most industrialized states in India however it ought to purpose for 10x progress to attain the GDP per capita ranges of Taiwan/South Korea.

“TN has a per capita GDP of around $3000 per capita and a country like Taiwan is at $30,000... We have to move from only having factories to having the know-how behind those factories. We have to build our R&D capability for this,” he stated. “We need our products to aspire to be the “greatest on the planet”,” he added. Vembu additionally requested the federal government to think about having particular R&D linked engineering awards to honour our chemical, mechanical and different engineers who create merchandise and wish encouragement. Srivats Ram, president, MCCI stated the chamber has been selling Chennai as a next technology monetary hub during the last two years and is comfortable to observe that the federal government has dedicated to a fintech metropolis in Chennai. “The chamber has passionately worked on a draft fintech policy for the government and we would continue to help the government in this area,” he added.